Consult a Healthcare Provider

Schedule an appointment with a healthcare provider registered with the New York State Medical Marijuana Program. Discuss your condition and the potential benefits of medical cannabis.

Receive Certification

If deemed appropriate by your healthcare provider, you will receive a certification for medical cannabis use, which includes a registry ID. This ID can be used immediately to purchase medical cannabis with a government-issued photo ID.

Access the Online Portal

Visit the New York State Medical Marijuana Program's online portal to start the registration process.

Create an Account

Click 'Create an Account' on the portal's homepage and provide accurate personal information and a secure password.

Complete the Application

Fill out the application form with all required details, including information about your medical condition and the certification from your healthcare provider.

Submit the Application

Submit your completed application online. Note that there is no fee to apply for the medical marijuana card.

Wait for Approval

Your application will be reviewed by the New York State Office of Cannabis Management, which typically responds within 10 business days.

Receive Your Medical Marijuana Card

Once approved, your medical marijuana card will be mailed to you. The validity of the card can be up to one year, depending on your medical needs.

There is no state application fee. The certification will include a registry ID, which can be used immediately along with a government-issued photo ID to purchase medical cannabis. Medical marijuana cards are valid for one year from the date of issuance, and annual certification renewal is required. If you need assistance at any point, don't hesitate to reach out to us.
