

New York Renewal

Click here for Registration Website

Access the Online Portal

Log into your existing account on the New York State Medical Marijuana Program's online portal.

Review Personal Information

Verify and update any personal information on file as necessary.

Consult Healthcare Provider

Arrange a consultation with your healthcare provider to renew your medical marijuana certification.

Receive Renewed Certification

After your consultation, receive a renewed certification from your provider, which may include a new registry ID.

Complete the Renewal Application

Fill out the renewal application form on the portal, ensuring all information about your medical condition and new certification is updated.

Submit the Renewal Application

Submit the renewal application online. There is no fee for renewing your medical marijuana card.

Wait for Approval

The New York State Office of Cannabis Management will review your renewal application and typically respond within 10 business days.

Receive Updated Medical Marijuana Card

Once your renewal is approved, your updated medical marijuana card will be mailed to you, valid for up to another year, depending on your medical needs.

There is no state application fee. The certification will include a registry ID, which can be used immediately along with a government-issued photo ID to purchase medical cannabis. Medical marijuana cards are valid for one year from the date of issuance, and annual certification renewal is required. If you need assistance at any point, don't hesitate to reach out to us.
